Welcome to Borderline Speedway

Borderline Speedway gets back into action tonight with a great line up scheduled.

Super Sedans are making a return to the borderline clay way with a great field on hand with current Australian Super Sedan Champion Callum Harper, newly crowned SA champion Ryan Alexander, Vic 1 in Dave Gartner and the Nicolas will do battle with drivers from South Australia, Victoria and NSW.

Also, on the program is the 2019 running of the Limited Sportsman SA Title. With a 15-car field it promises to be a corker. Current and defending SA champion Nathan Baker will be looking to retain his title from a talented field with the likes of Joshua and Kahn Aston, Dillon Seily, Christopher Ansell and Matt McCallum to name a few.

A first for the Borderline Speedway club tomorrow night, the Legend Cars will be making their official debut! 18 cars will do battle around the Borderline Bullring. These guys can put on a show and if you have never seen the legend cars in action before be sure to check out the shared vision from Sydney's Valvoline Raceway on our Facebook Page.

Formula 500s are also back for the final time this season with round 6 of the SA State Series. Points leader going into round 6 Brendan Zadow will be looking to maintain his lead from a quality field from both SA and Victoria. The local contingent will be represented by Mathew Weyers, Jordan Mansell and Steph Munn.

Its all pointing to be an action-packed Friday night at the Borderline Speedway.
